

Tara Gordon

Director of Client Services

Tara joined Paine Pacific in early 2012 bringing her experience in sales, management and customer service in manufacturing, distribution and retail. She has direct experience in long term client relationships for contractional and manufacturing sales and the management of financials, training and growth. She managed wide territories in the NW including Oregon, Washington, Colorado, Utah, Minnesota, North Dakota and Kansas. She understands business to business relationships and the components that make them successful.

Tara was born and raised in Portland, Oregon. She left Oregon to study marketing and play volleyball on a full scholarship at the University of Montana. Since her return to Portland she has married and recently added to her family of six.

